

Temple Sisterhood Will Sponsor Art Show, Sale

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will hold an art show and sale in conjunction with the regular monthly meeting, 8 p.m., Monday, Dec. 10, in the lounge of Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real, Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Milton Feldon, prominent local artist, will speak on "The World of Jewish Art," illustrating her talk with slides, some of which have been loaned by the University of Judaism.

Vicki Feldon, as she is known, studied art at Cooper Union Art School, School for Art Studies in New York City, Akron Art Institute and the University of Akron, Akron, Ohio. In California, she has taken courses at El Camino College, University of Southern California, and presently is working at UCLA on a BA degree in fine arts, under Dr. Block, curator of prints. She is now engaged in a study, investigating prints on motifs of the Wandering Jew legend in 18th century England. Mrs.

Feldon is a member of the Torrance Art Group, South Bay Art Assn. and Artists Coop Gallery, and has shown her work locally.

On exhibition at the meeting will be paintings by leading local Jewish women artists. They will be displayed at Temple Menorah through Dec. 16, when a sale will be held during the Temple's annual Hanukkah carnival. A painting by Bobbie Bachheimer and prints by Vicki Feldon will be awarded on Dec. 16. Tickets may be purchased at the Sisterhood meeting and at the carnival.

Any Jewish woman in the area interested in submitting her paintings for this art show and sale may call Mrs. Henry Rappaport, Torrance, program chairman.

San Francisco Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears returned last Thursday from a week in Palo Alto and San Francisco where they visited relatives and friends.

Ann Landers

six years of marriage I thought I was in love with another man. I walked out on my husband and two children, taking nothing but a few clothes.

After six months I realized I had made a terrible mistake. My sweetheart missed his wife and family and we began to argue. One night after he had had too much to drink he called me a cheap home-wrecker and locked me out of our apartment.

I have been in touch with a friend and neighbor and have learned that after I left, my husband hired a housekeeper. She has even been accepted by my husband's family.

I am dying to go home and ask my husband to take me back, but I'm afraid he might say no and it would kill my pride. Should I stay away and make a new life for myself?
—FOOLISH WOMAN

Dear Foolish: You seem to be overlooking a fairly important detail. You are still married. If your husband is squiring the housekeeper about, perhaps he too, has lost sight of this elementary fact.

Get on the first thing that moves and go home. Beg your husband to take you back. You have nothing to lose, and a great deal to gain. Like the privilege of raising your children.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Help for the Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

CHRISTMAS MUSICAL . . . At the Halldale PTA meeting, Tuesday, Dec. 11 at 1:30 p.m. in the school auditorium a Christmas musical will be directed by Arthur Stilwell, music teacher. Featured students are, from left, Gail Quiring, Donna Kenyon, Christine Mitchell and Carol Sampson. Mrs. George Gutierrez, citizenship chairman, will read the Bill of Rights. Hostesses will be fifth grade mothers.

For Hospitalized Children Volunteers Issue Call For New Toys, Cookies

Torrance residents are invited to join in bringing Christmas joy to the hospitalized children at Harbor General Hospital.

Giving residents this opportunity to share, are the Volunteers for Children, who stage an annual Christmas party for these youngsters. Each child receives a new toy, refreshments and other gifts.

The Volunteers are in need of new toys and Christmas cookies for the children. These women, who work throughout the year, to cheer up the young patients, will wrap the toys and see that the gift is given to a child at the correct age level.

Entertainment is also a highlight of the party. Any individual or group wishing to assist with this project may call Mrs. Lee Rondat or Mrs. J. C. Cassell.

The deadline for picking up Christmas cookies and toys is Thursday, Dec. 13.

Chapter To Elect Officers

Election of officers will highlight the meeting of the Anna Grancell Heart and Cancer Chapter of Cedars-Sinai Hospital and Clinic to be held Wednesday, Dec. 12, at the home of Mrs. Mary Ronne, 116 Prospect, Hermosa Beach.

Hostesses will be Mmes. J. Shagne, William Sloan, S. Marshall and Jayne Sharfman.

Mrs. Harry Kaplan, president of the chapter, has announced a rummage sale to be held Dec. 14 and 15 at 1276 Sartori Ave., Torrance. Members having rummage to be picked up may call Mrs. William Goldberg.

Mrs. William Sloan is in charge of the bake sale and toy sale to be held Dec. 15 at 1276 Sartori. Among the many toys offered will be the Chatty Cathy and Terry Lee dolls.

WSCS Yule Party Dec. 13

General meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Torrance First Methodist Church will be held in the Friendship room at the church at 10 a.m. on Thursday, Dec. 13.

Mrs. Russell Paxton will conduct a business meeting and Mrs. J. S. McMullen will lead the worship program.

A Christmas program entitled "Hear the Angels Sing" will be presented in the church sanctuary by Mrs. Lois Baisley. White gifts of pinto beans should be brought to the sanctuary.

Following the program, a Christmas luncheon will be served by Naomi Circle. Mrs. Robert Scarborough, chairman, is taking reservations.

Alumnae to Meet

South Bay Zeta Tau Alpha will hold a special Christmas meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 11, at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Jannie Lee Hutchins, 3030 Hermosa Ave., Hermosa Beach.

Each member will bring a small gift for an exchange. Mrs. Hutchins may be called for reservations.

Visit Family

Dr. and Mrs. Philip Lisman, who have spent the past two weeks here with their family, have returned to their cabin near Bishop where they will remain until after the holidays.

PTA

The Torrance Council Way

Mrs. William Jackson

"Christmas Greetings Around the World" will be featured at the regular meeting of the Fern-Greenwood PTA at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 13, in the school cafeteria. Mrs. L. H. Clotworthy, program chairman, announced that students from many classes will join to present a Christmas visit in song and tableau to eight different countries. The inspirational will be given by Ralph Waterman, 7th grade teacher. Members of Brownie Troop 2076 will present the flag salute. Mrs. J. D. Stoneberg, welfare chairman, announced that a very successful food ingathering was held at Thanksgiving and that Fern-Greenwood PTA assisted Torrance Council with its welfare needs.

question and answer period was held and all in attendance enjoyed this lively and informative evening. A newspaper drive, chaired by Mrs. Ben Wallace, was held on Wednesday, Nov. 28. This was quite successful, and prizes were awarded for the leading lower grade and the leading upper grade. Mrs. Northrup's room won for the lower grades, receiving a viewmaster and reels. Mrs. Hanson's room, in the upper class division, won a record album. On Wednesday, Dec. 5, after a meeting at which there was an exchange of gifts, the PTA board had a Christmas luncheon at the Palms restaurant in Torrance.

MADISON

Madison PTA will conduct its December meeting on Wednesday, Dec. 12, at 7:30. The theme for the evening is "Hour of Stars." The program will be "Christmas with Music" with an all-student participation, including orchestra. The inspirational will be given by student Dale Braithwaite. The pledge of allegiance will be conducted by Cub Scout Troop 953-C, Den 4. The featured chairman are Mrs. Robert Morad, inspiration, and Mrs. Paul Mahaffey, welfare. The hostesses will be room mothers from rooms 7 and 8.

SOUTH HIGH

President Mrs. William Allen will present "Attitude of Enjoyment," theme for the Christmas musical at the Dec. 12, 8 p.m. meeting at South High cafeteria. A chorus of over a hundred students directed by Glen Hawley of South High music department will perform Christmas selections with instruments and voice. The program was formerly given as a student body meeting, winning wide acclaim. It is being presented for the first time as a public performance through cooperation of Mrs. William Poser and John Lucas, principal South High. Featured school department will be an exhibit in the home economics department, "Modern Living." Featured PTA chairman is Mrs. D. C. Robbins, magazines. There will be an election of a nominating committee. Refreshments will be served by Mmes. Paul Lassen and Betty Stilwell, hospitality. Three chairmen have been ratified by the board. They are Mmes. Henry Smith, treasurer; Robert Stepleton, civil defense; and Eugene Laxton, publicity.

Witnessing the wedding was another couple from the bowling club, Mr. and Mrs. T. Henning. Officiating at the marriage was a Justice of the Peace at the Las Vegas courthouse.

Fleming

At the Oct. 19 PTA board meeting, P. E. Turner, principal of Fleming Junior High school, informed board members of an increase in the enrollment. With 1,827 students filling all classrooms, including the Little Theater, 14 teachers were added to the staff.

Mr. Turner also informed the board of the addition of a 10-week health program and a special honors program in mathematics. Students with an IQ of 130 or over and advanced two years in mathematics will be given algebra I in the AI, Algebra II in the B9 and Geometry I in A9.

Workers were recruited for the SOS polio clinic to be held at Fleming Sunday, Oct. 28. All parents and children are urged to take advantage of the clinic.

Las Vegas Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Atkins, who were married in Las Vegas on Oct. 20, are now at home at 3816 W. 180th St. Mrs. Atkins is the former Helen Kohler, a Torrance resident for the past 10 years.

The couple met through the National Fifty and Over Bowling Club and it was during the club's trip to Las Vegas that they were married.

The wedding announcement came as a surprise when the club members were having dinner that evening. The bride has two daughters and two grandchildren. She is employed at North High School, has worked with the PTA and is a past Girl Scout leader.

Her husband, a native of Grass Valley, Calif., has made his home in Torrance for the past 30 years. He has been employed by the Ford Motor Co. for 16 years.
